El Nino Ventures Inc. (the “Company”) (TSXV: ELN; Frankfurt: E7Q) announced today that Mr. Spiros Cacos has resigned as a director of the Company, effective as of May 5, 2011. The Board thanks Mr. Cacos for his years of service to the Company and wishes him success in all of his future endeavors.

About El Niño Ventures Inc.

El Niño Ventures Inc. is a mineral exploration company focused on base-metal exploration and development internationally. Currently the company is focused on developing its Canadian and African projects:

Murray Brook Project: Under Votorantim's Option and Joint Venture Agreement with Murray Brook Minerals and Murray Brook Resources, Votorantim can earn a 50% interest in the Properties, by funding $2,250,000 in exploration expenditures and making payments totalling $300,000 over a three year period commencing November 1, 2010. Votorantim can earn an additional 20% interest in the Properties by funding an additional $2,250,000 in exploration expenditures over an additional two year period.

Bathurst Mining Camp Project: Consists of an initial 4,712 claims in tri-party agreement with Xstrata & VM Canada whereby VM Canada may incur exploration expenditures of $10 million over a period of 5 years to earn a 50% interest. VM Canada may further increase its interest to 70% by spending an additional $10 million over 2 years.

Kasala Project, DRC: El Niño Ventures is also focused on a copper project in the Democratic Republic of Congo. The Kasala discovery is the first green-fields copper find in the last 10 years in the Central African Copper Belt.

The company is also aggressively negotiating to acquire new projects to add to its current portfolio.

On Behalf of the Board of Directors,

Harry Barr, Chairman & Acting CEO
